Job 42:7-17

Questions for Discussion

1. What makes believing God’s justice and mercy difficult? How does looking to the cross help us make sense of God’s mercy and justice?
2. What’s the connection between restoration and repentance? Is there an opportunity for restoration and repentance in your life?
3. How will you cultivate a vertical perspective to keep you from horizontal panic? Discuss how those around you can keep you accountable to that perspective.

How to Live Sent This Week

As followers of Jesus, we’re called to show glimpses of God’s mercy and justice. After hearing this message, look for opportunities to respond to injustices you see in your sphere of influence. Who in your sphere of influence could you engage in a conversation to learn or understand a different perspective on injustice? Encourage each other to respond with faith, trusting in the sovereignty of God.
