

“Silence to Singing”
Sermon Discussion Guide
December 6, 2020

Questions for Discussion

1. Has your year been characterized by silence or singing? Why would you say so?
2. What do you need to remember in order to regain your thirst for the Lord?
3. What comes to mind when you hear the phrase “God’s steadfast love and constant presence”?
4. How will you practice putting your hope in God this week?

Live Sent

What’s the most “joy-filled” experience you’ve had with God? Think back to that time and how you felt as a result. As you interact with others this week, look for opportunities to ask someone else about a joyous experience. In these conversations, share any points from today’s message to encourage them in how they can face life’s challenges while still experiencing joy and point them to the abiding joy we have in Jesus.