

What do you want Jesus to do for you?

Mark 10:46-52

1. Life is fragile and death is a reality. The coronavirus has caused our whole society to slow down and take a hard look at our lives. Let's make the most of this unexpected change of pace.
  - a. How badly do you want to be in Jesus' presence?
  - b. What steps will you take to be near Jesus and listen to him in these days?
2. Jesus calls us to be honest about our problems, while he meets us in our need. Being honest about our problems is uncomfortable, but Jesus tells us it's okay to not be okay. He is our rock, the stronghold of our life. He holds all things together.
  - a. How would you answer if Jesus asked, "What do you want me to do for you?"
  - b. If Jesus answered your request, would that actually meet your deepest need?
3. Bartimaeus was changed after his encounter with Jesus. He's a picture of true discipleship. He moved from waiting for Jesus to following Jesus.
  - a. Think about opportunities you and your family have to follow Jesus this week. How can you live sent together this week?
  - b. What part of your life does Jesus need to change this week?
