

“Kinsman-Redeemer”

Ruth 3:1-18

If your family includes children of varying ages, consider rewording the questions to help your child better understand what's being asked.

1. The book of Ruth takes place during the time of the Judges when “everyone does what is right in his own eyes.” But, we see clearly in Ruth 3 that godly character reaps rewards. When have you seen this in your own life?
2. What do you find beautiful about Jesus being humanity’s Kinsman-Redeemer? Discuss related doctrines or biblical passages that come to your mind.
3. There’s been a lot of injustice in the news over the last few weeks. How might the concept of kinsman-redeemer apply to how followers of Jesus relate to our neighbors?

IDEAS FOR LIVING SENT THIS WEEK

Think of a friend, neighbor, or family member who needs someone to help him or her through a tough time. Perhaps an elderly neighbor needs help with yard work. Or perhaps a friend or co-worker needs someone to talk to about life’s struggles. Or consider helping those in our city who need food or clothing. Be intentional about helping someone in a time of need, just as Boaz helped Ruth. As you do so, look for opportunities to share about the ultimate Kinsman-Redeemer, who lives with perfect character, shows us mercy, and has covered our sins.
